

Panj Meeting Nov 24, 2013

Attendance: Guru Surya, Bir, Ajeet, and Sat Mandir Singh

Past Events:

- Sacred Geometry: Six yogis attended the presentation and participated in the water tattva meditation. It was an informative event.
- Yogi Roots Festival: We had Kundalini Yoga for the first time at this festival. It was great to introduce Kundalini to the other yogis. Ajeet led a class with live musicians with the Kriya of Withstanding the Pressures of the Times.

Business:

- Renewing the website: Hard to locate billing information but found link to the site. It has been renewed, it expires 11/9/2015, and we paid $71 for two years through our debit account. It will auto renew in two years with that debit card.
- Our website only lists KRI Certified Teachers that have paid the kypdx marketing fee. Teachers should keep us posted to class changes (as opposed to us tracking down updates). Possible future marketing position with small compensation.
- Checking the satnam email account: hard to see that it has been replied to if a new message thread is started. Just hit reply so there is not any confusion.
- Treasure report will be e-mailed to the Panj by Sevak.
- Leadership of our community and GSK stepping down. We would like to include students in TT and let them know we would love to have new members. Ajeet needs volunteers for turban tying on Sunday Feb 2 in the afternoon. This might be a great opportunity to mention the panj as well as ask for volunteers to help with white tantric.

Future events:

- Gurunam coming to Mandala Studio and also Yoga West in Eugene weekend May 24/25th
- Sadhana: Wait until new year to open up other Sadhana days. Any volunteers? We'd like you to train now. Contact satnam@kypdx.com Also in the new year will begin at 4am (and end at 6:30am) Sunday time will also move to 4am, starting January, to be consistent. We would love week day leaders also!!
- Will there be a solstice event in Portland?
- Will monthly kirtans begin soon?
- Winter Solstice (in Florida) will be attended by Guru Surya and Sat Mandir. We will look forward to hearing about their experience.
- Christmas Eve potluck details will go out soon on FB and the calendar.

Bir will put some at New Renaissance bookstore, Ajeet at Mandala and Healing Water Healing Spaces, and Guru Surya will electronically submit to Yogi Roots. Image for Facebook photo of white tantric would be great. Meeting Jan 26th at Hardev's, potluck from 5pm-7pm. Everyone is invited! All teachers are strongly encouraged to be there.
